

“The Largest Not-For-Profit National Trade Association Of Repossession Specialists Since 1936”

Michael Peplinski

Michael Peplinski started his career in the banking industry at HSBC Bank. After 10 years he decided to move towards the more personal, client driven field of insurance. He quickly found that the repossession industry was his forte. Mike is now Vice President of the largest Insurance Agency specializing in repossession insurance. He Insures over 350 collateral recovery companies nationwide. In 2016, Mike was able to start an Exclusive Repossession Insurance Program for Harding Brooks clients. His future plans are to continue fostering this program while working closely with the National and State Associations to educate their members on risk management.
