

Valerie McGilvrey is a former Texas Property & Casualty insurance adjuster with heavy experience in fraudulent claims, document fraud, witness location, and has performed countless complex investigations into all types of crime-from white collar fraud to loss-of-life investigations.

She's authored two books that describe the highly successful methods for locating people and conducting background searches. Skip Trace Secrets and Background Check have reached the top of the civil law book lists in the United States.

Once the owner of an ice house in The Woodlands, Texas and she now owns Asset Management Services in Conroe, Texas and since 1997 has specialized in locating hard-to-find repossession skips for recovery agencies and auto finance companies in the Houston area.

Valerie conducts seminars that teach the art of pre-texting and skip tracing to investigative and recovery professionals nationwide. You'll find her blogging about her love of skip tracing at TheDailySkip.com.
